

BIOGRAPHY FOR JASON PLUMMER

Jason Plummer serves as Vice President for Corporate Development in the family business, R.P. Lumber, which has 43 locations in Illinois. He has worked directly in economic development initiatives throughout Illinois, concentrating in commercial and residential development, property acquisition, and property management. R.P. Lumber and subsidiary companies have helped create and maintain over 1,000 meaningful jobs in Illinois.

Some of Plummer's most recent projects include creating new jobs by developing a hotel, revitalizing a retail shopping center, and opening a new R.P. Lumber location. His economic development experience includes intensive work in communities throughout Illinois.

Always interested in government and politics, Plummer is past chairman of the Madison County Republican Party and served under U.S. Senator Peter Fitzgerald and in Washington, D.C. with the Heritage Foundation, the renowned conservative public policy research institute that focuses on principles of free enterprise, limited government, individual freedoms, traditional American values, and a strong national defense.

Jason attended the University of Illinois, earning a degree in Finance and was Vice President of the student body. While in Champaign, Jason led the student opposition to the public funding of a speech by former Weather Underground member Bill Ayres, earning him support and accolades from conservative leaders throughout America.

Even before graduation, Jason started his first company, a wireless Internet company, providing rural broadband access to several counties in downstate Illinois.

Plummer serves as an Intelligence Office with the U.S. Navy Reserves. He is also on the board of the Illinois Lumber and Material Dealers Association. In his spare time, Plummer coaches youth sports at First Baptist Church of Maryville.
